

667 667 - NUNC DIMITTIS
(O Gladsome Light, O Grace)

1. Lord, let Your servant go,
Your peace on [him/her] bestow;
Your gracious Word, Your blessing at last has been fulfilled and all my fears have stilled, my trust in You confessing.

2. How faithful You have been!
For my own eyes have seen the wonderful salvation prepared for all to see,
as You had promised me,
and shown to ev'ry nation.

3. This light for all to see,
for Gentiles full and free,
to banish night and blindness;
and for Your chosen race,
to Israel, the grace,
the glory of Your kindness.

4. This child shall be the sign
for many to decline,
for many, raise in glory;
a sword shall pierce you too,
revealing what is true:
the heart's unspoken story.

5. Glory, O Father, Lord, and to Your Son, the Word,
and to the Holy Spirit;
as was in days before,
is now, and evermore
when we Your life inherit.

“Lord, now you are letting your servant depart in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation that you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and for glory to your people Israel.” (Lk 2:29-32)

“Behold, this child is appointed for the fall and rising of many in Israel, and for a sign that is opposed (and a sword will pierce through your own soul also), so that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed.” (Lk 2:34-35)

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
