

Communion of the Sick in Ordinary Circumstances

72. Priests with pastoral responsibilities should see to it that the sick or aged, even though not seriously ill or in danger of death, are given every opportunity to receive the Eucharist frequently, even daily, especially during the Easter season. They may receive communion at any hour. Those who care for the sick may receive communion with them, in accord with the usual norms. To provide frequent communion for the sick, it may be necessary to ensure that the community has a sufficient number of ministers of communion. The communion minister should wear attire appropriate to this ministry.

The sick person and others may help to plan the celebration, for example, by choosing the prayers and readings. Those making these choices should keep in mind the condition of the sick person. The readings and the homily should help those present to reach a deeper understanding of the mystery of human suffering in relation to the paschal mystery of Christ.

73. The faithful who are ill are deprived of their rightful and accustomed place in the Eucharistic community. In bringing communion to them the minister of Communion represents Christ and manifests faith and charity on behalf of the whole community toward those who cannot be present at the Eucharist. For the sick the reception of communion is not only a privilege but also a sign of support and concern shown by the Christian community for its members who are ill.

The links between the community's Eucharistic celebration, especially on the Lord's Day, and the communion of the sick are intimate and manifold. Besides remembering the sick in the general intercessions at Mass, those present should be reminded occasionally of the significance of communion in the lives of those who are ill: union with Christ in his struggle with evil, his prayer for the world, and his love for the Father, and union with the community from which they are separated.

The obligation to visit and comfort those who cannot take part in the Eucharistic assembly may be clearly demonstrated by taking Communion to them from the community's Eucharistic celebration. This symbol of unity between the community and its sick members has the deepest significance on the Lord's Day, the special day of the Eucharistic assembly.

74. When the Eucharist is brought to the sick, it should be carried in a pyx or small closed container. Those who are with the sick should be asked to prepare a table covered with a linen cloth upon which the Blessed Sacrament will be placed. Lighted candles are prepared and, where it is customary, a vessel of holy water. Care should be taken to make the occasion special and joyful.

Sick people who are unable to receive under the form of bread may receive under the form of wine alone. If the wine is consecrated at a Mass not celebrated in the presence of the sick person, the Blood of the Lord is kept in a properly covered vessel and is placed in the tabernacle after Communion. The Precious Blood should be carried to the sick in a vessel which is closed in such a way as to eliminate all danger of spilling. If some of the Precious Blood remains, it should be consumed by the minister, who should also see to it that the vessel is properly purified.

75. If the sick wish to celebrate the sacrament of penance, it is preferable that the priest make himself available for this during a previous visit.

If it is necessary to celebrate the sacrament of penance during the rite of communion, it takes the place of the penitential rite.

Communion in Ordinary Circumstances

77. If possible, provision should be made to celebrate Mass in the homes of the sick, with their families and friends gathered around them. The Ordinary determines the conditions and requirements for such celebrations.

Invocation

In the name ✠ of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Peace to this house and to all who live in it.

*Penitential Act

The minister may choose one, or both, of the following:

A. I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking the breast 3x) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault. Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-virgin, all the angels and saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

May almighty God ✠ have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

B. Lord Jesus, You healed the sick. Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.
Christ Jesus, You forgave sinners. Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, You give us Yourself to heal us and bring us strength. Lord, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

May almighty God ✠ have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

*Scripture readings

The minister may read the appointed readings of the day. These may be found online at: <https://bible.usccb.org/daily-bible-reading>. If the appointed readings are unavailable, use one of the sets of readings provided in the back of this booklet.

*Profession of Faith

[Apostles' Creed or Nicene Creed]

Communion Rite

Let us pray with confidence to the Father in the words our savior gave us:

[Our Father]

Behold the lamb of God, behold Him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the lamb.

Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

The minister distributes communion reverently, saying:

The body of Christ. Amen.

Moment of Silence

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Let us pray.

The minister may choose one of the following:

A. All-powerful and ever-living God, may the body and blood of Christ, Your Son, be for our brother/sister [N.] a lasting remedy for his/her body and soul. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

B. May this heavenly ministry, O Lord, restore us in mind and body, that we may be coheirs in glory with Christ, to whose suffering we are united whenever we proclaim His death. Who lives and reigns forever and ever.

C. Lord, You have nourished us with one bread from heaven. Fill us with Your Spirit, and make us one in peace and love. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

D. God our Father, You give us a share in the one bread and the one cup and make us one in Christ. Help us to bring Your salvation and joy to all the world. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

E. Almighty and ever-living Lord, You restored us to life by raising Christ from death. Strengthen us by this Easter sacrament; may we feel its saving power in our daily life. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Concluding Rite

May the Lord ☩ bless us, protect us from all evil, and bring us to everlasting life. Amen.

Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life. Thanks be to God.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, light from light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through Him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation He came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake He was crucified under Pontius Pilate, He suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and His kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Act of Spiritual Communion*

My Jesus, I believe that You are truly present in the most holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. Amen.

Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; He descended into hell; on the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

Anima Christi

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.

Body of Christ, save me.

Blood of Christ, inebriate me.

Water from Christ's side, wash me.

Passion of Christ, strengthen me.

O good Jesus, hear me.

Within Your wounds, hide me.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

From the evil one, protect me.

At the hour of my death, call me, and bid me come to You, that, with Your saints, I may praise You forever and ever. Amen.

If Communion is not available, or if someone declines but still wants prayer*

Hymn #1

1. O Jesus, we adore You,
who in Your love divine, conceal Your mighty Godhead
in forms of bread and wine.

R/ O Sacrament most holy,
O Sacrament divine,
all praise and all thanksgiving
be every moment Thine!

2. O Jesus, we adore You,
our victim and our priest whose precious blood and body become our sacred feast. R/

*3. O Jesus, we adore You,
our savior and our king,
and with the saints and angels
our humble homage bring. R/

*4. O Jesus, we adore You, come, live in us, we pray,
that all our thoughts and actions be Yours alone today. R/

5. O come, all you who labor in sorrow and in pain;
come, eat this bread from heaven,
your peace and strength regain. R/

*Stanzas 3-4 may be omitted

Hymn #2

1. O Lord Jesus, I adore Thee for the bread of worth untold freely giv'n in Thy communion, wonderful a thousandfold;
giv'n today in loving bounty
more than my poor heart can hold.

2. Make Thou of my soul an orchard quickened into fruitfulness;
come, O come, life-giving manna,
making glad my wilderness:
sweeter far than any sweetness tongue can taste or words express.

*3. Ah, Lord Jesus go not from me, stay, ah, stay with me, my Lord;
make me shrink from whatsoever
will not with Thy name accord;
act through me in ev'ry action,
speak through me in ev'ry word.

*4. Would that I could keep Thee always in mine inmost heart to be,
Thou and only Thou suggesting ev'ry thought and wish in me;
all my soul, with singing, offered for a sacrifice to Thee.

*Stanzas 3-4 may be omitted

Hymn #3

1. Jesus, my Lord, my God, my all, how can I love Thee as I ought?
And how revere this wondrous gift,
so far surpassing hope or thought?

R/ Sweet sacrament, we Thee adore;
oh, make us love Thee more and more.
Oh, make us love Thee more and more.

*2. Had I but Mary's sinless heart to love Thee with, my dearest king, oh, with what bursts of fervent praise
Thy goodness, Jesus, would I sing. R/

3. Thy body, soul, and Godhead, all,
O mystery of love divine.
I cannot compass all I have,
for all Thou hast and art are mine. R/

*Stanza 2 may be omitted

Hymn #4

1. Shepherd of souls, refresh and bless Your chosen pilgrim flock with manna in the wilderness, with water from the rock.

2. We would not live by bread alone, but by Your word of grace,
in strength of which we travel on to our abiding place.

3. Be known to us in breaking bread,
but do not then depart;
savior, abide with us, and spread
Your table in our heart.

4. Lord, sup with us in love divine;
Your body and Your blood,
that living bread, that heav'nly wine,
be our immortal food.

Hymn #5

1. Let all mortal flesh keep silence and with fear and trembling stand;
ponder nothing earthly minded,
for, with blessing in His hand,
Christ our God to earth descendeth, our full homage to demand.

2. King of kings, yet born of Mary,
as of old on earth He stood;
Lord of lords, in human vesture,
in the body and the blood.
He will give to all the faithful
His own self for heav'nly food.

3. Rank on rank the host of heaven spreads its vanguard on the way as the Light of light descendeth from the realms of endless day;
comes the pow'rs of hell to vanquish
and the darkness clear away.

4. At His feet the six-winged seraph, cherubim with sleepless eye, veil their faces to the presence
as with ceaseless voice they cry,
"Alleluia, alleluia,
alleluia, Lord most high!"

Hymn #6

1. O Lord, I am not worthy that Thou should'st come to me;
but speak the word of comfort,
my spirit healed shall be.

2. And humbly I'll receive Thee, *the bridegroom of my soul,
no more by sin to grieve Thee
or fly Thy sweet control.

3. Eternal Holy Spirit, unworthy though I be,
prepare me to receive Him
and trust the Word to me.

4. Increase my faith, dear Jesus, in Thy real presence here,
and make me feel most deeply that Thou to me art near.

*5. O Sacrament most holy,
O Sacrament divine,
all praise and all thanksgiving
be every moment Thine!

*Stanzas 2, 5 may be omitted

Hymn #7

1. O Living Bread from heaven, how well You feed Your guest!
The gifts that You have given have filled my heart with rest.
Oh, wondrous food of blessing,
oh, cup that heals our woes!
My heart, this gift possessing,
with praises overflows.

*2. My Lord, You here have led me to this most holy place and with Yourself have fed me
the treasures of Your grace;
for You have freely given what earth could never buy,
the bread of life from heaven,
that now I shall not die.

3. You gave me all I wanted;
this food can death destroy.
and You have freely granted
the cup of endless joy.
My Lord, I do not merit
the favor You have shown,
and all my soul and spirit
bow down before Your throne.

4. Lord, grant me then, thus strengthened with heav'nly food, while here my course on earth is lengthened, to serve with holy fear.
And when You call my spirit
to leave this world below,
I enter, through Your merit,
where joys unmingled flow.

*Stanza 2 may be omitted

Hymn #8

1. Father, we thank Thee who hast planted Thy holy name within our hearts.
Knowledge and faith and life immortal
Jesus, Thy Son, to us imparts.
Lord, Thou didst make for all Thy pleasure, didst give us food for all our days,
giving in Christ, the bread eternal;
Thine is the pow'r, be Thine the praise.

2. Watch o'er Thy Church, O Lord, in mercy, save it from evil, guard it still,
perfect it in Thy love, unite it, cleansed and conformed unto Thy will.
As grain, once scattered on the hillsides, was in this broken bread made one,
so from all lands Thy Church be gathered into Thy kingdom by Thy Son.

Hymn #9

1. Lord, who at Thy first Eucharist did pray that all Thy Church might be forever one, grant us at ev'ry Eucharist to say with longing heart and soul, "Thy will be done."

O may we all one bread, one body be,
through this blest Sacrament of unity.

2. For all Thy Church, O Lord, we intercede; make Thou our sad divisions soon to cease;
draw us the nearer each, to each we plead,
by drawing all to thee, O prince of peace;
thus may we all one bread, one body be,
through this blest Sacrament of unity.

*3. We pray Thee, too, for wand'ers from Thy fold;
O bring them back, good shepherd of the sheep,
back to the faith which saints believed of old,
back to the Church which still that faith doth keep;
soon may we all one bread, one body be,
through this blest Sacrament of unity.

4. So, Lord, at length when sacraments shall cease,
may we be one with all Thy Church above,
one with Thy saints in one unbroken peace,
one with Thy saints in one unbounded love;
more blessed still in peace and love to be one with the Trinity in unity.

*Stanza 3 may be omitted

Hymn #10

1. The heav'nly Word, proceeding forth yet leaving not the Father's side, accomplishing His work on earth
had reached at length life's eventide.

*2. By false disciple to be giv'n to foemen for His life athirst, Himself, the very bread of heav'n,
He gave to His disciples first.

3. He gave Himself in either kind,
His precious flesh, His precious blood;
in love's own fullness thus designed
of the whole man to be the food.

*4. By birth their fellow-man was He,
their meat, when sitting at the board;
He died, our ransom to be;
He ever reigns, their great reward.

5. O saving victim, op'ning wide the gate of heav'n to us below,
our foes press on from every side:
Your aid supply, Your strength bestow.

6. To your great name be endless praise, immortal Godhead one-in-three;
grant us, for endless length of days,
in our true native land to be.

*Stanzas 2, 4 may be omitted

Hymn #10 L

1. Verbum supernum prodiens, nec Patris linquens dexteram,
ad opus suum exiens,
venit ad vitæ vesperam.

*2. In mortem a discipulo suis tradendus æmulis, prius in vitæ ferculo
se tradidit discipulis.

3. Quibus sub bina specie carnem dedit et sanguinem;
ut duplicis substantiæ
totum cibaret hominem.

*4. Se nascens dedit socium, convescens in edulium,
se moriens in pretium,
se regnans dat in præmium.

5. O salutaris hostia,
quæ cæli pandis ostium,
bella premunt hostilia;
da robur, fer auxilium.

6. Uni trinoque Domino sit sempiterna gloria:
qui vitam sine termino
nobis donet in patria.

*Stanzas 2, 4 may be omitted

Hymn #11

1. Sing, my tongue, the savior's glory, of His flesh the mystery sing:
of the blood, all price exceeding,
shed by our immortal king,
destined for the world's redemption,
from a noble womb to spring.

*2. Of a pure and spotless virgin born for us on earth below,
He, as man, with man conversing,
stayed, the seeds of truth to sow;
then He closed in solemn order wondrously His life of woe.

*3. On the night of that last supper, seated with His chosen band,
He, the Paschal victim eating,
first fulfills the Law's command;
then, as food, to His apostles gives Himself with His own hand.

4. Word made flesh, the bread of nature by His word to flesh He turns;
wine into His blood He changes:
what though sense no change discerns?
Only be the heart in earnest, faith its lesson quickly learns.

5. Down in adoration falling, this great sacrament we hail;
over ancient forms of worship newer rites of grace prevail;
faith will tell us Christ is present
when our human senses fail.

6. To the everlasting Father, and the Son who made us free,
and the Spirit, God proceeding
from them each eternally, be salvation, honor, blessing,
might, and endless majesty.

*Stanzas 2-3 may be omitted

Hymn #10 L

1. Pange, lingua, gloriosi corporis mysterium,
sanguinisque pretiosi,
quem in mundi pretium
fructus ventris generosi rex effudit gentium.

*2. Nobis datus, nobis natus ex intacta virgine,
et in mundo conversatus,
sparso verbi semine,
sui moras incolatus
miro clausit ordine.

*3. In supremæ nocte coenæ recumbens cum fratribus observata lege plene
cibis in legalibus,
cibum turbae duodenæ
se dat suis manibus.

4. Verbum caro, panem verum verbo carnem efficit:
fitque sanguis Christi merum,
et si sensus deficit,
ad firmandum cor sincerum
sola fides sufficit.

5. Tantum ergo sacramentum veneremur cernui:
et antiquum documentum
novo cedat ritui:
praestet fides supplementum sensuum defectui.

6. Genitori, Genitoque
laus et jubilatio,
salus, honor, virtus quoque
sit et benedictio:
procedenti ab utroque
compar sit laudatio.

*Stanzas 2-3 may be omitted

Hymn #12

1. Godhead here in hiding, whom I do adore,
masked by these bare shadows,
shape, and nothing more.
See, Lord, at Thy service
low lies here a heart,
lost, all lost in wonder at the God Thou art.

2. Seeing, touching, tasting are in Thee deceived;
how says trusty hearing?
that shall be believed;
what God's Son has told me,
take for truth I do;
Truth Himself speaks truly
or there's nothing true.

*3. On the cross Thy Godhead made no sign to men;
here Thy very manhood
steals from human ken:
both are my confession,
both are my belief,
and I pray the pray'r made by the dying thief.

*4. I am not like Thomas, wounds I cannot see,
but I plainly call Thee Lord and God as he:
this faith each day deeper
be my holding of,
daily make me harder
hope and dearer love.

5. O Thou, our reminder of the crucified,
living bread, the life of
us for whom He died,
lend this life to me, then;
feed and feast my mind,
there be Thou the sweetness man was meant to find.

*6. Like what tender tales tell of the pelican,
bathe me, Jesus Lord, in what Thy bosom ran – blood that but one drop of
has the pow'r to win
all the world forgiveness of its world of sin.

7. Jesus, whom I look at shrouded here below,
I beseech thee, send me
what I thirst for so,
some day to gaze on Thee face-to-face in light
and be blest forever
with Thy glory's sight.

*Stanzas 3-4, 6 may be omitted

Hymn #12 L

1. Adoro te devote, latens Deitas, quæ sub his figuris vere latitas:
tibi se cor meum totum subjicit,
quia te contemplans totum deficit.

2. Visus, tactus, gustus in te fallitur, sed auditu solo tuto creditur:
credo quidquid dixit Dei Filius:
nil hoc verbo Veritatis verius.

*3. In cruce latebat sola Deitas, at hic latet simul et humanitas:
ambo tamen credens atque confitens,
peto quod petivit latro pœnitens.

*4. Plagas, sicut Thomas, non intueor: Deum tamen meum te confiteor:
fac me tibi semper magis credere,
in te spem habere, te diligere.

5. O memoriale mortis Domini, panis vivus, vitam præstans homini, præsta meae menti de te vivere,
et te illi semper dulce sapere.

*6. Pie pelicane, Jesu Domine, me immundum munda tuo sanguine,
cujus una stilla salvum facere totum mundum quit ab omni scelere.

7. Jesu, quem velatum nunc aspicio, oro fiat illud quod tam sitio:
ut te revelata cernens facie, visu sim beatus tuæ gloriæ.

*Stanzas 3-4, 6 may be omitted

Hymn #13

1. Soul of my savior, sanctify my breast;
body of Christ, be Thou my saving guest;
blood of my savior, bathe me in Thy tide;
wash me with water flowing from His side.

2. Strength and protection may Thy passion be;
O blessed Jesus, hear and answer me;
deep in Thy wounds, Lord, hide and shelter me;
so shall I never, never part from Thee.

3. Hear me, Lord Jesus, listen as I pray, “Lead me from night to never-ending day.
Fill all the world with love and grace divine,
and glory, laud, and praise be ever Thine.”

Hymn #14

1. Sanctify me wholly,
soul of Christ adored;
be my sure salvation,
body of the Lord;
fill and satisfy me,
O Thou blood unpriced;
wash me, sacred water,
from the side of Christ.

2. Passion of my savior,
be my strength in need;
good and gracious Jesus,
to my pray’r give heed;
in Thy wounds most precious let me refuge find;
all the pow’r malignant
of the foeman bind.

3. At death’s final hour,
call me to Thy face;
bid me stand beside Thee
in the heav’nly place;
There with saints and angels
I shall sing to Thee
through the countless ages of eternity.

Hymn #15

1. Soul of Jesus, make me whole, meek and contrite make my soul;
Thou most stainless soul divine,
cleanse this sordid soul of mine;
hallow this my contrite heart, purify my every part.
Soul of Jesus, hallow me,
miserere Domine.

2. Save me, body of my Lord, save a sinner, vile, abhorred;
sacred body, wan and worn,
bruised and mangled, scourged and torn;
pierced hands and feet and side,
rent, insulted, crucified.
Save me: to the cross I flee,
miserere Domine.

3. Blood of Jesus, stream of life, sacred stream with blessings rife,
from the broken body shed
on the cross, that altar dread;
giv'n to be our drink divine,
fill my heart and make it Thine.
Blood of Christ, my succor be,
miserere Domine.

4. Holy water, stream that poured from Thy riven side, O Lord, wash Thou me without, within,
cleanse me from the taint of sin,
till my soul is clean and white, bathed and purified and bright
as a ransomed soul should be,
miserere Domine.

5. Jesus, by the wondrous pow'r of Thine awful passion hour;
by the unimagined woe
mortal man may never know.
By the curse upon Thee laid,
by the ransom Thou hast paid,
by Thy passion comfort me,
miserere Domine.

6. Jesus, by Thy bitter death, by Thy last expiring breath,
give me the eternal life,
purchased by that mortal strife;
Thou didst suffer death that I might not die eternally;
by Thy dying quicken me,
miserere Domine.

7. Miserere, let me be never parted, Lord, from Thee;
guard me from my ruthless foe,
save me from eternal woe;
when the hour of death is near,
and my spirit faints for fear,
call me with Thy voice of love,
place me near to Thee above, with Thine angel host to raise
an undying song of praise, miserere Domine.

Hymn #16

R/ You satisfy the hungry heart
with gift of finest wheat;
come, give to us, O saving Lord
the bread of life to eat.

*1. As when the shepherd calls his sheep, they know and heed his voice;
so when You call Your fam'ly, Lord,
we follow and rejoice. R/

2. With joyful lips we sing to You our praise and gratitude,
that You should count us worthy, Lord,
to share this heav'nly food. R/

*3. Is not the cup we bless and share the blood of Christ outpoured?
Do not one cup, one loaf, declare our oneness in the Lord? R/

4. The myst'ry of Your presence, Lord, no mortal tongue can tell:
whom all the world cannot contain comes in our hearts to dwell. R/

5. You give Yourself to us, O Lord; then selfless let us be,
to serve each other in Your name in truth and charity. R/

*Stanzas 1, 3 may be omitted

Hymn #17

1. Where charity and love prevail there God is ever found;
brought here together by Christ's love
by love are we thus bound.

*2. With grateful joy and holy fear
His charity we learn;
let us with heart and mind and soul
now love Him in return.

3. Forgive we now each other's faults as we our faults confess,
and let us love each other well
in Christian holiness.

4. Let strife among us be unknown;
let all contention cease;
be God's the glory that we seek;
be ours His holy peace.

5. Let us recall that in our midst dwells Christ, His only Son;
as members of His body joined
we are in Him made one.

*6. For love excludes no race or clan that names the savior's name;
His family embraces all whose Father is the same

*Stanzas 2, 6 may be omitted

Hymn #18

1. Holy God, we praise Thy name;
Lord of all, we bow before Thee!
All on earth Thy scepter claim,
all in heav'n above adore Thee;
infinite Thy vast domain,
everlasting is Thy reign.

2. Hark! The loud celestial hymn angel choirs above are raising;
cherubim and seraphim,
in unceasing chorus praising,
fill the heavens with sweet accord,
"Holy, holy, holy, Lord."

*3. Lo! The apostolic train join the sacred name to hallow;
prophets swell the loud refrain,
and the white-robed martyrs follow;
and, from morn to set of sun,
through the Church the song goes on.

*4. Holy Father, Holy Son, Holy Spirit, Three we name Thee;
while in essence only One,
undivided God we claim Thee;
and, adoring, bend the knee,
while we own the mystery.

*5. Thou art king of glory, Christ;
Son of God, yet born of Mary;
for us sinners sacrificed,
and to death a tributary;
first to break the bars of death,
Thou has opened heav'n to faith.

*6. From Thy high celestial home, judge of all, again returning;
we believe that Thou shalt come in the dreaded doomsday morning when Thy voice shall shake the earth and the startled dead come forth.

7. Therefore do we pray Thee, Lord:
help Thy servants whom, redeeming by Thy precious blood outpoured, Thou hast saved from Satan's scheming.
Give to them eternal rest
in the glory of the blest.

8. Spare Thy people, Lord, we pray, by a thousand snares surrounded;
keep us without sin today,
never let us be confounded.
Lo, I put my trust in Thee;
never, Lord, abandon me.

READING SET ONE – The Bread of Life

First Reading

A reading from the book of Exodus. (Exo. 16:4–5, 9–15 [or Exo. 16:4-5, 13b-15])

Then the LORD said to Moses, “I will now rain down bread from heaven for you. Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not. On the sixth day, however, when they prepare what they bring in, let it be twice as much as they gather on the other days.”

[Then Moses said to Aaron, “Tell the whole congregation of the children of Israel: Present yourselves before the LORD, for he has heard your grumbling.” When Aaron announced this to the whole assembly of the children of Israel, they turned toward the desert, and lo, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud! The LORD spoke to Moses and said, “I have heard the grumbling of the children of Israel. Tell them: In the evening twilight you shall eat flesh, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread, so that you may know that I, the LORD, am your God.”

In the evening quail came up and covered the camp.] In the morning a dew lay all about the camp, and when the dew evaporated, there on the surface of the desert were fine flakes like hoarfrost on the ground. On seeing it, the children of Israel asked one another, “What is this?” for they did not know what it was. But Moses told them, “This is the bread which the LORD has given you to eat.”

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

(Ps. 78:18-19, 23-24, 25-26, 27-28)

R/ The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

They tempted God in their hearts
by demanding the food they craved.
Yes, they spoke against God, saying,
“Can God spread a table in the desert?”

R/ The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

Yet he commanded the skies above and the doors of heaven he opened;
He rained manna upon them for food and gave them heavenly bread.

R/ The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

Man ate the bread of angels,
food he sent them in abundance.
He stirred up the east wind in the heavens,
and by his power brought on the south
wind.

R/ The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

And he rained meat upon them like dust,
and, like the sand of the sea, winged fowl,
Which fell in the midst of their camp round about their tents.

R/ The Lord gave them bread from heaven.

Second Reading (optional)

A reading from the first letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians. (1 Cor. 10:16–17, 11:23-26)

The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

[For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, “This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.]

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia.*

I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever. (Jn. 6:51)

*During Lent, use “Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory”

Gospel

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John. Glory to You, O Lord. (Jn. 6:51-59)

Jesus said to them, “I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.”
The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

Jesus said to them, “Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

READING SET TWO – Comfort in Christ

First Reading

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah. (Isa. 25:6-9)

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will provide for all peoples
a feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines.
On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,
the web that is woven over all nations.
He will destroy death forever.

The Lord GOD will wipe away
the tears from all faces;
The reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the LORD has spoken.
On that day it will be said:
“Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us!
This is the LORD for whom we looked;
let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!”

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

(Ps. 23:1-3a, 3b-4, 5, 6)

R/ The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul.

R/ The Lord is my shepherd; there is
nothing I shall want.

He guides me in right paths
for his name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.

R/ The Lord is my shepherd; there is
nothing I shall want.

You spread the table before me
in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

R/ The Lord is my shepherd; there is
nothing I shall want.

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD
for years to come.

R/ The Lord is my shepherd; there is
nothing I shall want.

Second Reading (optional)

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Romans. (Romans 8:28-32, 38–39)

We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified. What then shall we say to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia.*

I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. (Jn. 6:51)

*During Lent, use “Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory”

Gospel

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John. Glory to You, O Lord. (Jn. 14:1-6)

Jesus said to his disciples: “Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way.”

Thomas said to him, “Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?” Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.

READING SET THREE - Healing and Hope

First Reading

A reading from the book of Wisdom. (Wis. 16:20-21, 24-26)

You nourished your people with food of angels and furnished them bread from heaven, ready to hand, untoiled for, endowed with all delights and conforming to every taste. For this substance revealed your sweetness toward your children; and serving the desire of him who received it, was blended to whatever flavor each one wished.

For creation, serving you who made it, exerts itself to punish the wicked and in kindness relaxes in behalf of those who trust in you. Therefore at that time also, transformed in every way, it served your all-nourishing bounty, according to the desire of those in need. So that your children, whom you loved, might learn, O Lord, that it is not the production of crops that feeds humankind, but that it is your word, which sustains those who believe you.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

(Ps. 103:1–2, 3–4, 8–9, 13–14, 17–18a)

R/ The Lord is kind and merciful.

Bless the LORD, O my soul;
all my being, bless his holy name.
Bless the LORD, O my soul,
and do not forget all his gifts.

R/ The Lord is kind and merciful.

Who pardons all your sins,
and heals all your ills,
Who redeems your life from the pit,
and crowns you with mercy and compassion.

R/ The Lord is kind and merciful.

Merciful and gracious is the LORD,
slow to anger, abounding in mercy.

He will not always accuse,
and nurses no lasting anger.

R/ The Lord is kind and merciful.

As a father has compassion on his children,
so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him.
For he knows how we are formed, remembers that we are dust.

R/ The Lord is kind and merciful.

But the LORD's mercy is from age to age,
toward those who fear him.
His salvation is for the children's children
of those who keep his covenant.

R/ The Lord is kind and merciful.

Second Reading (optional)

A reading from the letter of Saint James. (Jas. 5:13-16)

Is anyone among you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone in good spirits? He should sing praise. Is anyone among you sick? He should summon the presbyters of the church, and they should pray over him and anoint him with oil in the name of the Lord, and the prayer of faith will save the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed any sins, he will be forgiven. Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The fervent prayer of a righteous person is very powerful.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia.*

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits; He heals all your ills. (Ps. 103:2–3)

*During Lent, use “Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory”

Gospel

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark. Glory to You, O Lord. (Mk. 2:1-12)

When Jesus returned to Capernaum after some days, it became known that he was at home. Many gathered together so that there was no longer room for them, not even around the door and he preached the word to them. They came bringing to him a paralytic carried by four men. Unable to get near Jesus because of the crowd, they opened up the roof above him. After they had broken through, they let down the mat on which the paralytic was lying. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, “Child, your sins are forgiven.”

Now some of the scribes were sitting there asking themselves, “Why does this man speak that way? He is blaspheming. Who but God alone can forgive sins?” Jesus immediately knew in his mind what they were thinking to themselves, so he said, “Why are you thinking such things in your hearts? Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Rise, pick up your mat and walk’? But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority to forgive sins on earth” – he said to the paralytic, “I say to you, rise, pick up your mat, and go home.” He rose, picked up his mat at once, and went away in the sight of everyone. They were all astounded and glorified God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to You, Lord Jesus Christ.
